OUR DUAL FOCUS: Litigation and Compliance

At Coat Haut de Sigy de Roux, we represent our clients every day in criminal, civil and commercial courts, as well as before regulatory agencies.

Our partners define pre-trial strategies and manage any urgent situations or crises, such as damage to image or reputation.

We advise our clients on compliance, in particular how to interpret their legal and regulatory obligations, and guidelines and publications from regulators.

Our firm can help your company set up internal procedures to combat money laundering, terrorism financing, corruption and influence peddling. We can also help develop your code of professional ethics and handle international sanctions.

Our lawyers have unique expertise in multi-jurisdictional cases, especially in investigations by foreign authorities.

This dual focus on litigation and compliance means that we can manage the entire litigation cycle: from prevention to remediation.

At Coat Haut de Sigy de Roux, we can also develop and run specifically-designed training sessions at your offices.
